On October 26, 2018 Columbus Grove High School recognized 76 students in grades 10-12 who earned the Academic Letter based on their academic performance last school year. The Academic Letter program is designed to acknowledge excellence in the classroom by giving a Letter, similar to an Athletic Letter, to students who maintain a 3.5 grade point average or higher for the entire school year. Students were called down to the Commons where they received their Academic Letter. In addition, students were treated to donuts and juice as a small incentive for their hard work and dedication in the classroom. Those students who received this Letter are as follows:

Seniors: Jacob Oglesbee, Kyle Schroeder, Caleb Langhals, Autumn Thompson, Riley Schumacher, Madison Nicklaus, Bryce King, Grace Morman, Amelia Page, Madison Wiseman, Tanner Rode, Peyton Brubaker, Rylee Sybert, Adam Bogart, Shane Cornell, Dylan Mason, and Hailey Coleman.
